(Also, hit the bass note BEFORE strumming each (and every) chord.
It gives it that folky feel.)

[Verse]
G                 G        C9        C9
If I was in the fridge,  would you open the door?
G              Em      Dsus      Dsus
If I was the grass, would you mow your lawn?
G              G        C9        C9
If I was your body, would you still wear clothes?
G              Em      Dsus        Dsus
If I was a booger, would you blow your nose?
C9                    Dsus
Would you keep it? Would you eat it?
         C9               Asus    Em  C9    Dsus   G
I m just tryin to give myself a reason, for being around.
G               G                   C9        C9
If I was the front porch swing would you let me hang?
G              Em            Dsus          Dsus
If I was the dance floor would you shake your thing?
G         G                 C9          C9
If I was a rubber check would you let me bounce
G      Em          Dsus        Dsus
Up and down inside your bank account?
         C9                Dsus
Would ya trust me, not to break you?
         C9        Asus    Em       C9      Dsus   G
I m just tryin really hard to make you, notice me being around.

(Musical Interlude, no solo, just strum the G chord hard a few times with a strange rhythm)

G         G                 C9          C9
If I was a haircut would you wear a hat?
G        Em         Dsus      Dsus
If I was a maid, could I clean your flat?
G         G                 C9          C9

If I was the carpet would ya wipe your feet,
G         Em          Dsus          Dsus
In time to save me from mud off the street?
     C9              Dsus                    C9              Asus
If you like me, if you love me, why don t you get down on your knees
     Em
and scrub me?
          Asus      Asus    C9
I m a little grubby
     Dsus      G
From being around.
