```
D                Bm                Gm                Em
I saw you leave the bar last night with some fine and dandy man
D                Bm                Gm                Em
I heard from one of your buddies that he asked you for your hand.
Bm                A                Gm                Em
He asked you for your hand but he don t fit you like a glove
```

I d walk over hot coals, just to win your love.

[Em / A progression (once)]

D                Bm                Gm                Em
They call me good for nothing, and they call me worthless jerk
D                Bm                Gm                Em
They call me in the morning when I don t show up for work.
Bm                A                Gm                Em
But I don t think they understand, I got better things to do.
```

I m walking over hot coals, darling, just for you
I m walking over hot coals, darling, just for you

Em / A progression (x3)

Em (7) A (5)
To get along in this old world, it takes a cutthroat or a fool
Em (7) A (5)
When I m out of cigarettes, I think the whole thing is so cruel

Ain t no piece of cake life ain t dishin out
Nothing that my heart can t take

D Bm Gm Em
Some boys might fix your car and take you out to eat
D Bm Gm Em
But some boys might play guitar and sing a song so sweet
Bm A Gm Em
But that s all good and proper but it s not really my style.

I m walking over hot coals, darling, just for you
I m walking over hot coals, darling, just for you

Em / A progression to end
