My Hero Zero The Lemonheads

MY HERO ZERO

Transcribed by DEVON GREEN

SPOKEN: zero?

yeah, zero s my hero

how can zero be a hero

well there are all kinds of heros you know a man can be a hero for a famous battle he fought or by studing very hard to become a weightless astronaut, and then there are uhhhhhh heros of other sorts like heros from watching sports but a hero doesn t have to be a grown person, a hero can be a very large DOG who comes to your rescue or a very little child thats smart enough to know what to do, but let me tell ya about my favorite hero....

(bass slide from B to...)

My hero zero, such a funny little hero but till you came along

E5 A

we counted on out fingers and toes, but now your here to stay, and nobody really knows, how wonderful you are,

G B5 E5 D5

we could never reach the stars, without you zero my hero

how wonderful you are.

spoken 1: whats so wonderful about zero, its nothing isn t it?

2: sure it represents nothing-

B5 E5

But place a zero after 1 and you ve got yourself a 10, see how important that is

When you run outta digits start all over again see how convenent that is

Thats with only 10 digits including zero

C Bb F E5

you can count as high as you ever need to go, forever toward infinity

A B5

no one ever gets there but you can try

E5 E5 B5

10 billion zeros from the cavemen to the wierdos who invented

E5 you, they counted on their fingers and toes maybe sticks and stones, rocks and bones, or neighbors toes yeah yeah E5 and nobody really knows, how wonderful you are why we could never reach the stars without you zero my hero zero how wonderful you are E5 Place on zero after any number you ve multipled that # by 10 see how easy that is В5 E5 Place 2 zeros after any number you ve multipled that # by 100 see how simple that is в5 E5 Place 3 zeros after any number you ve multipled that # by 1000 G в5 Е

etc, etc, ad infinitum, ad astra, forever and ever

A

E5

with zero my hero, how wonderful you are
