Here s a story about the rules of death and glory

Em (Riff 1)

To be learned by heart by all children of men

F Am

It s the hour of the morning on the day after the dawning

Bb G

When the sun they said would never set finally set again

C C7+ C C7+

Was it cromwell or orwell who first led you to the stairwell

Em (Riff 2)

Which leads only forever to kingdom come

F Am

Rushed alone by guiding hands whispers of the promised land

Bb G G G#

They wished you luck and handed you a gun

C G G#
 Life could be so handsome
 C G G#
 Life could be so gay
 C
 We re going nowhere
 Bb G
 But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

C C7+ C C7+
 In the pub that night racking out the lines of shite
 Em (Riff 1)
 Putting to right all of the world s great wrongs
 F Am
 Yes we thought that they were brothers then they half-murdered each other
 Bb G
 Then they did a karaoke turn and murdered our best song

C C7+ C C7+
 Told the governor s wife about the last night of his life
 Em (Riff 1)
 She turned away in tears called you a liar
 F Am
 Where are all the old dreams now? the batallions, once so proud
 Bb G G G#
 Lost in some old song and hanging on the old barbedwire

C G G#
 Life could be so handsome
 C G G#
 It s so good to be okay
 C
 We re going nowhere
 Bb G
 But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

Nowhere in the institutions did they teach that revolution
Em (Riff 1)

Was something that could ever come to pass
F Am

Oh we tried one, once before was the king s head on the floor
Bb G G G#

And we got booted out the boozer cause someone smashed the glass

C G G#

Life could be so handsome

C G G#

Life could be okay

C

We re going nowhere

Bb G G G#

But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

C G G#

Life could be so handsome

C G G#

It s all gonna be okay

C

We re going nowhere

Bb G

Cause nowhere, nowhere s on our way

C

Nowhere s on our way
