Here s a story about the rules of death and glory
Dm (Riff 1)

To be learned by heart by all children of men
Eb Gm

It s the hour of the morning on the day after the dawning
G# F

When the sun they said would never set finally set again
Bb Bb7+ Bb Bb7+

Was it cromwell or orwell who first led you to the stairwell
Dm (Riff 2)

Which leads only forever to kingdom come
Eb Gm

Rushed alone by guiding hands whispers of the promised land
G# F F F#

They wished you luck and handed you a gun

Life could be so handsome

Bb F F#

Life could be so gay

Bb F F#

We re going nowhere

Bb

But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

G# F

In the pub that night racking out the lines of shite

Bb Bb7+ Bb Bb7+

Putting to right all of the world s great wrongs

Dm (Riff 1)

Yes we thought that they were brothers then they half-murdered each other

Eb Gm

Then they did a karaoke turn and murdered our best song

G# F

Told the governor s wife about the last night of his life

Bb Bb7+ Bb Bb7+

She turned away in tears called you a liar

Dm (Riff 1)

Where are all the old dreams now? the batallions, once so proud

Eb Gm

Lost in some old song and hanging on the old barbedwire

G# F F F#

Life could be so handsome

Bb F F#

It s so good to be okay

Bb F F#

We re going nowhere

Bb

But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

Nowhere in the institutions did they teach that revolution
      Dm                      (Riff 1)
Was something that could ever come to pass

Oh we tried one, once before was the king s head on the floor
      G#                      F                      F F#
And we got booted out the boozer cause someone smashed the glass
