Here s a story about the rules of death and glory
Ebm (Riff 1)

To be learned by heart by all children of men
E G#m

It s the hour of the morning on the day after the dawning
A F#

When the sun they said would never set finally set again
B B7+ B B7+

Was it cromwell or orwell who first led you to the stairwell
Ebm (Riff 2)

Which leads only forever to kingdom come
E G#m

Rushed alone by guiding hands whispers of the promised land
A F# F# G

They wished you luck and handed you a gun

Life could be so handsome

B F# G

Life could be so gay

B F# G

We re going nowhere

B

But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

A F#

In the pub that night racking out the lines of shite

B B7+ B B7+

(Riff 1)

Putting to right all of the world s great wrongs

E G#m

Yes we thought that they were brothers then they half-murdered each other

A F#

Then they did a karaoke turn and murdered our best song

Told the governor s wife about the last night of his life

B B7+ B B7+

(Riff 1)

She turned away in tears called you a liar

E G#m

Where are all the old dreams now? the batallions, once so proud

A F# F# G

Lost in some old song and hanging on the old barbedwire

Life could be so handsome

B F# G

It s so good to be okay

B F# G

We re going nowhere

B

But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

Nowhere in the institutions did they teach that revolution
 Ebm (Riff 1)
Was something that could ever come to pass
 E G#m
Oh we tried one, once before was the king s head on the floor
 A F# F# G
And we got booted out the boozer cause someone smashed the glass

 B F# G
Life could be so handsome
 B F# G
Life could be okay
 B
We re going nowhere
 A F# F# G
But nowhere, nowhere s on our way

 B F# G
Life could be so handsome
 B F# G
It s all gonna be okay
 B
We re going nowhere
 A F#
Cause nowhere, nowhere s on our way
 B
Nowhere s on our way
