

Hooray For The 21st Century
The Libertines

Hooray for the 21st century

Verse

B F#m C#m Eb
Every sweet little lie ever whispered to you now rings true

B F#m C#m Eb
No need to wake the sleeping dogs when they ll just turn on you

B F#m C#m Eb
I ll make my way instead to the foots of your ivory tower

B

F#m C#m Eb
But no love do I find there amongst the leaves and the dying flowers

Chorus

Eb
What became of the lover in you
Eb C# B Bb
Beat the swine black and blue
Eb C# B Bb
You and I, me and you
Eb C# B Bb
What became of the lover in you
Eb C# B Bb
What became of the lover in you

Verse

The Thames and the Mersey, the Thyne and the Wear and the Clyde
They spew slums like gravey on the banks of the poisonous tyde
They washed up the pale thin girl, alone in her ivory tower
Scratching her skin with the thorns that grow on the stems of the wild flower

Chorus

What became of the lover in you
Beat the swine black and blue
You and I, me and you
What became of the lover in you

What became of the working class
Nike, Reebok, Adidas,
Scratch cards, pimples, ecstasy
Hooray fo the 21st Century (5x)

Bridge

Bbm F F# B
Living in a looking glass as the beauty of life goes by

E A F# B
You re going to be so old, you re going to be so old

Eb
Your skin so cold

Eb C# B Bb
Hooray for the 21st Century(x8)

Rob loustau Pete Doherty is innocent NOT PETE DOCHERTY