

Skint And Minted
The Libertines

the libertines - skint and minted, hi , i seen this is not up on this website , so decided to put it up, i don t know if this is 100% correct, but i have just been playing the chords by ear, while listening to this great song, I don t know the chords in the part after the chorus , but i just play
that part with the chorus chords , and it sounds pretty good, please let me know if the is any errors in this and please let me know what use think.
thank you declan

D G
No one got it right, no one got it wrong
D G
Live outside your head, live inside a song
E F# G A
Oh love those long lost weekdays spilling over me
E F# G A
And your outlines are all I can see
D G
You mustn t touch it, while he s on the phone
D G
No you can t touch that, while he s on the telephone
E F# G A
Oh love, these long lost weekends falling over me
E F# D
Now an outline is all I can see

CHORUS)

D BM
Oh skint and minted
G
Had it on the dole
A
Being piling it on now
D BM
Oh skint and minted
G
Running round the city
A
With nothing on

Well you re an evil swine but I like your style
The wiggle in your walk and the silver in your smile

VERSE)

D G
You got it right, no you got it wrong
D G
Live outside your head, live inside a song
E F# G A
Oh love, these long lost weekends falling over me
E F# D
Now an outline is all I can see

CHORUS)

D BM
We re skint and minted
G
Had it on the dole
A
Being piling it on D BM
We re skint and minted
G
Running round the city
With virtually nothing on

Oh, you re a swine but I like your style
I like wiggle in your walk and the silver in your smile
