THE LIGHTNING SEEDS: Pure

[Intro]
E A E A

E A Nighttime slows, raindrops splash rainbows
E A Perhaps someone you know could sparkle and shine
E A As the daydreams slide to color from shadow
E A Picture the moonglow that dazzles my eyes
B A And I love you
E A F#m Just lying, smiling in the dark, shooting stars around your heart
B E Dreams come bouncing in your head, pure and simple everytime
E A F#m But now you re crying in your sleep, I wish you d never learn to weep
B E Don t sell the dream you should be keeping pure and simple everytime

Dream of sights, of sleigh rides in seasons
Where feelings, not reasons, can make you decide
As the rain pours down, splash autumn on gardens
As colder nights harden their moonlit delights

If love s the truth then look no lies and let me swim around your eyes
I ve found the place I ll never leave, I ll shut my eyes and just believe
Love is the truth I ve realized, not a stream of pretty lies
To use us up, and waste our time
