Bridge To Nowhere - The Like

*this is a very good song to play with acoustic guitar... enjoy it!*

INTRO: B G#m E F#

B G#m E
Wake up It s over again
F#
The day is getting colder
B G#m E
Head aches, my mind breaks
F#
Kicked the covers on the floor
B G#m E
Downstairs They re laughing
F#
Everybody s seeming happy
B
I say it s too early
G#m E F#
To smile, I haven t done that in a while

B
Cuz I can t see your face any longer
C#
Not a trace any longer
E
I can t hide
B
I m not laughing anymore
B C#
I can t be who you wanted me to be
E
Who you wanted me to see
B
I don t know now what s in store
Anymore

*SAME AS ABOVE*

Flashbacks of times past
I would just forget to make it last
Turning on the lights
I m waiting
Nothing seems to be changing

Books are on the desk
Blank papers
Every sign of life just seems to taper

Cuz I can't see your face any longer
Not a trace any longer
I can't hide
I'm not laughing anymore
I can't be who you wanted me to be
Who you wanted me to see
I don't know now what's in store
Oh...

B            F#

Hear me out

Nothing's gonna break

Em                            F#            G#m

Nothing's gonna break me down, me down

E

Nothing's gonna take

Em                            F#

Nothing's gonna take me out

G#m                    B

Oh, oh, oh, oh...
