

Diners

The Lone Bellow

[Verse 1]

Break into the diners at midnight C
Every light is out but the moonlight G
Miss me at the table as you hobble on D
Pretend I m the one you still love C G
Play another song for your black heart C
Put another coin in that jukebox G
Dance along to all of the sad George Jones D
Cry, cry, cry C G

[Chorus]

Where are you now? C
Where have you been? G
Why do I waste, waste, waste D C
All the love that you lend? G

[Verse 2]

Find another town where they ain t seen C
How you break the windows while they sleep G
Trailer broken diners found all along the highway D C
From here to St. Paul G

[Verse 3]

It s a crying shame how you can t lie C
Tell yourself I m gone from your mind s eye G
Jukebox plays some Willie, life of the times D
And you cry, cry, cry C G

[Chorus]

Where are you now?
Where have you been?
Why do I waste, waste, waste
All the love that you lend?

[Chorus]

Where did you go?
You left me to death
The rules that I break, break, break
Into diners and sing

[Bridge]

All of these sad, sad songs
Like I never did you wrong
Dance on the tables and pause, and scream
I am the one that you love

[Solo]

C G D C G x2

[Chorus]

Where are you now?
Where have you been?
Why do I waste, waste, waste
All the love that you lend?

[Chorus]

Where did you go?
You left me to death
The rules that I break, break, break
Into diners and sing
