I'm leaving you all my car parts, I'll call you when I'm coming back again if I

I mean to quit stealing as soon as I steal for the last time
At least my watch is right two times a day

You put all your hope in my slim chance, my slim chance
You put all your hope in my slim chance, I didn't know why
You put all your hope in my slim chance, I don't even have cigarettes
I don't even have cigarettes
