The Low Anthem (Live at WFUV)

Capo III

G Gsus4 G 2x

Em G C

God cage the songbird

G Em D

Before the feathers run brown

Em G C

God bar the windows

Em D G

That we may though hollow be sound

Em C G

And this island shall be shackled to her waters

Em C D

Here we vow never to change

Em C G

Here we will stand at last for something

Em D G

With no desire to pretend

Em C G

Send up our prayers to gilded idols

Em C D

With their names etched in heartwood of palm

Em C G

And scatter the ashes of the contracts

Em D G

Their freedom so hollow a song

Em G C

God cage the songbird

G Em D

Before the feathers run brown

Em G C

God bar the windows

Em D G

That we may though hollow be sound

Em G C G Em D Em G C Em D G

Em C G

Now the street lamp will be tethered to her station

Em C D

As the poor man is tethered to the flesh

Em C G

As a wise man will be tethered to his wisdom

Em D G

As the mother is tethered to her crÃ"che

Em C G

Was your hunger your awareness of salvation

Em C D

As your chances go slipping to the past

Em C G

Are you tortured by the changing of the seasons?

Em D G

And each grain of sand in the glass

Em G C

God cage the songbird

G Em D

Before the feathers run brown

Em G C

God bar the windows

Em D G

That we may though hollow be sound

Em G C

God cage the songbird

G Em D

Before the feathers run brown

Em G C

God bar the windows

Em D G

That we may though hollow be sound
