

Ghost Woman Blues
The Low Anthem

Ghost Woman Blues by The Low Anthem

CAPO ON 2nd

INTRO: G

G D G C G
On my way home, By that lonesome graveyard

G D G C G
On my way home, By that lonesome graveyard

G D/F# Em C D/F# G
A ghost jumps up and says Come on, be my man

G D G C G
No ghost at all, someone asking for a ride

G D G C G
No ghost at all, someone asking for a home

G D/F# Em C D/F# G
She says Come here boy and take me, to your room

(CLARINET SOLO):

G D G C G G D G C G G D/F# Em C D/F# G

G D G C G
That young ghost woman, she keeps, she keeps me thin

G D G C G
That young ghost woman, she keeps, she keeps me thin

G D/F# Em C D/F# G
She spends all the money I make on the L & N

G D G C G
I ain t no lamp, but my wick is burning low

G D G C G

I ain t no lamp, but my wick is burning low

G D/F# Em C D/F# G
Better light me up another before I go

G D G C G
On my way home, by that lonesome graveyard

G D G C G
On my way home, By that lonesome graveyard

G D/F# Em C D/F# G
A ghost jumps up and says Come on, be my man