

Ticket Taker
The Low Anthem

This is a slight edit on the original tab, mainly on the last line of each verse and the chorus. Also I believe it s on a Capo on the 5th fret.

Capo on 5th

INTRO: C

F C C C/Am F
Well tonight s the night when the waters rise, You re groping in the dark

Am G
The ticket takers count the men who can afford the ark

F C C C/Am F
The ticket takers will not board, For the ticket takers are tied

C Am F C
For five and change an hour, They will count the passers by

F C C C/Am F
They say the sky s the limit, But the sky s about to fall

Am G
Down come all them record books cradle and all

F C C C/Am F
They say before he bit it, That the boxer felt no pain

C Am F C
But somewhere there s a gamblin man, With a ticket in the rain

CHORUS:

F C G C F C G
Mary Anne, I know I m a long shot, But Mary Anne, what else have you got?

F C C C/Am F
I am a ticket taker, many tickets have I torn

C Am G C
And I will be your ark, we will float above the storm

(BASS SOLO):

F C C C/Am F Am G F C

F C C C/Am F
Many years have passed in this river town, I ve sailed through many traps

Am G
I keep a stock of weapons should society collapse

F C C C/Am F
I keep a stock of ammo, One of oil and one of gold

C Am F C
I keep a place for Mary Anne, Soon she will come home

CHORUS (X2):

F C G C F C G
Mary Anne, I know I m a long shot, But Mary Anne, what else have you got?

F C C C/Am F
I am a ticket taker, many tickets have I torn

C Am G C
And I will be your ark, we will float above the storm
