G C D C
Well I want to take a streetcar downtown
G C D C
Read Henry Miller and wander around
G C D C
And drink some Guinness from a tin
G C D
Cause my U.I. cheque has just come in
C
Ah, where you been because,

Chorus:

C D G Em
Everything is comin up Rosy & Grey
C D G Em
Yeah, the wind is cold but the smell of snow warms me today
C D G
And your smile is fine and it s just like mine
Em
And it won t go away
C D G Em
Cause everything is Rosy & Grey

Well you ve been under my skin for more than eight years
It s been eight years of laughter and eight years of tears
And I don t know what the future (can/)will hold or (will/)can do
For me and you
But, I m a much better man for havin known you
Ah, you know that s true because...

Chorus:

Bridge:

C D G Em

Well I ve been told that there s a sucker born every day

C D C D

But I wonder who, yeah I wonder who

C D G Em

Maybe the one who doesn t realize there s a thousand shades of grey

C D C D C D

Cause I know that s true, yes I do, I know it s true, yeah, I know it s true

How bout you

Well they re pickin up trash and they re puttin down roads

And they re brokering stocks, the class struggle explodes

And I ll play this guitar just the best that I can

Well maybe I m not and maybe I am

Well who gives a damn because...

Chorus:

Well I ve kissed you in France and I ve kissed you in Spain

And I ve kissed you in places I better not name

And I ve seen the sun go down on Sacre Coeur

But I like it much better goin down on you

Yeah You know that s true because...

Chorus:
