

Weatherboard
The Lucksmiths

Intro: E A Bm A F#m Bm Dadd9 A x 2

          E                  A                  Bm  A
It was summer when she moved in
          F#m                  Bm                  Dadd9  A
And it was winter when she moved out again
          E  A                          Bm  A
And the sky was usually blue
          F#m                          Bm                  Dadd9  A
And the single bed was big enough for two

          E                          A                  Bm  A
It s funny the things that stay with you
          F#m                          Bm                  Dadd9          A
Her jewellery on the table and the smell of her perfume
          E                          A                  Bm                  A
The candle wax on the carpet, singing in the supermarket
          F#m  Bm                  Dadd9  A
And the wall paper in her bedroom

          Dadd9                          Bm                  A
I ll never understand how it happened like this
          Dadd9                          Bm                  A
I drew an open hand and she drew a fist
          Dadd9  Bm  A          E
I drew an arrow and a heart, she drew a razor and a wrist

Break: E A Bm A F#m Bm Dadd9 A x 2

          E                          A
She said I love you when it s sunny
          Bm                          A
But the sun refused to shine
          F#m  Bm                  Dadd9  A
And I was crucified on the clothes line
          E                  A                          Bm  A
She stole a magazine from the laundromat
          F#m                          Bm                  Dadd9          A
Did it weigh upon her conscience as it lay upon her lap

          Dadd9                          Bm                  A
The body is willing but the mind is weak
          Dadd9  Bm          A
The champagne is chilling and the wine is cheap
          Dadd9  Bm          A          E
The milk was always spilling and we cried ourselves to sleep

Break: E A Bm A F#m Bm Dadd9 A x 2

E A Bm A
It was summer when she moved in

F#m Bm Dadd9 A
And it was winter when she moved house again

E A Bm A
The boxes on the floor

F#m Bm Dadd9 A
And the note that she pinned to my door

Dadd9 A
This house is made of sticks

Dadd9 A
This house is made of straw

Dadd9 A
This house is made of bricks

Dadd9 A
This house is made of weatherboard

Outro: F#m Dm A
