Intro: G# C# Ebm C# Bbm Ebm F#add9 C# x 2

G# C# Ebm C#
It was summer when she moved in
Bbm Ebm F#add9 C#
And it was winter when she moved out again
G# C# Ebm C#
And the sky was usually blue
Bbm Ebm F#add9 C#
And the single bed was big enough for two

G# C# Ebm C#
It s funny the things that stay with you
Bbm Ebm F#add9 C#
Her jewellery on the table and the smell of her perfume
G# C# Ebm C#
The candle wax on the carpet, singing in the supermarket
Bbm Ebm F#add9 C#
And the wall paper in her bedroom

F#add9 Ebm C#
I ll never understand how it happened like this
F#add9 Ebm C#
I drew an open hand and she drew a fist
F#add9 Ebm C# G#
I drew an arrow and a heart, she drew a razor and a wrist

G# C#
She said I love you when it s sunny
Ebm C#
But the sun refused to shine
Bbm Ebm F#add9 C#
And I was crucified on the clothes line
G# C# Ebm C#
She stole a magazine from the laundromat
Bbm Ebm F#add9 C#
Did it weigh upon her conscience as it lay upon her lap

F#add9 Ebm C#
The body is willing but the mind is weak
F#add9 Ebm C#
The champagne is chilling and the wine is cheap
F#add9 Ebm C# G#
The milk was always spilling and we cried ourselves to sleep
