intro and verse are just that repeated.

A

A

Welllll, she was standing in the bar

D

D

I said, Hello, how do you do?

E

A

She handed me a beer with a kangaroo

D

She spoke of places I had never been

D

That she had traveled to

A

And we slowed danced along to faster tunes

A A D
I made her laugh, I made a pass, I showed her my half dollar ring
D
She said, That s pretty cool,
E D A A
But classy girls don t kiss in bars, you fool

Interlude(Picking ends here and strumming starts):
A A D D E D A

A A
So later on the crowd calmed down
D D
And I believe it was as if
E D A A
Something drew me closer to her lips

A A D D
So picture my surprise when I had tried to lean in for a kiss
E D A A
And she just smiled and turned her head down

A
I asked her, Why? and she replied,
A D D
It was nothing I was doing wrong, its just what it is
E D A A
No, classy girls don t kiss in bars like this

D E
No, classy girls don t kiss in bars
D E
Boys will break their backs and hearts
D E A D E E
But its alright, the hardest part is through

A D E E
Oh it s through
A D E E
Oh it s through
A D E E
Oh it s through
A
The hardest part is through.

Thanks
