

Long Way From Home
The Lumineers

[Intro] A D A E F#m D A

A D A E F#m D A
Held on to hope like a noose, like a rope

A D A E F#m D A
God and medicine take no mercy on him

D A D A
Poisoned his blood, and burned out his throat

D A E F#m D A D A E F#m D A
Enough is enough, he s a long way from home

A D A E F#m D A
Days of my youth wasted on a selfish fool

A D A E F#m D A
Who ran for the hills from the hand you were dealt

D A D A
I flew far away, as far as I could go

D A E F#m D A D A E F#m D A
Your time is running out and I m a long way from home

(A D A E F#m D A)

A D A E F#m D A
Laid up in bed, you were laid up in bed

A D A E F#m D A
Holding the pain like you re holding your breath

D A D A
I prayed you could sleep, sleep like a stone

D A E F#m D A D A E F#m D A
You re right next to me but you re a long way from home

(A D A E F#m D A)

A D A E F#m D A
Hospital gowns never fit like they should

A D A E F#m D A
We yelled at the nurse, didn t do any good

D A D A
More morphine, the last words you moaned

D A E F#m D A D A E F#m D A
At last I was sure that you weren t far away from home
