

A Chicken With Its Head Cut Off The Magnetic Fields

[Verse 1]

A E
Eligible, not too stupid,
G D
intelligible and cute as Cupid,
A E
knowledgeable, but not always right,
G D
salvageable and free for the night.

[Chorus]

Well my heart s running round
like a chicken with its head cut off, all around the barnyard falling in and out of love.
The poor thing s blind as a bat
getting up, falling down, getting up.
Who d fall in love with a chicken
with its head cut off?

[Verse 2]

(Whoa, Nellie)

A E
My wife doesn't understand me.

Many dozens hope to land me.

This could be love or nothing at all.
