

Black Butterflies And Deja Vu
The Maine

[Intro] C Em F

C Em
What, what would you say, if you could say
F
Everything you needed to, to the one you needed to?
Am G
You flash like a setting sun, you come around, I come undone
F
Can t find the sound under my tongue when I look at you

C G
I lose my voice when I look at you, can t make a noise though I m trying to
Am F
Tell you all the right words, waiting on the right words
C G
Just another lovesick afternoon, Black Butterflies and Déjà Vu
Am F
Hoping for the right words, waiting for the right words

(C Em F)

C Em
Just yesterday north of LA
F
I couldn t help but think of you, every time I think of you,
Am G
You crash like a rolling wave, you come around I lose my brain
F
Can t find the sound under my tongue when I look at you

C G
I lose my voice when I look at you, can t make a noise though I m trying to
Am F
Tell you all the right words, waiting on the right words
C G
Just another lovesick afternoon, Black Butterflies and Déjà Vu
Am F
Hoping for the right words, waiting for the right words

[Solo] C G Am F

C G
I ve been searching for the right words, right words
Am F
But I, I can t even find a, an echo, don t you let go
C G Am

There are only twenty six letters I can use

F

Just to tell you I won't let go, don't you let go

C

G

I lose my voice when I look at you, can't make a noise though I'm trying to

Am

F

Tell you all the right words, waiting on the right words

C

G

Just another lovesick afternoon, Black Butterflies and Déjà Vu

Am

F

Hoping for the right words, waiting for the right words

C

G

I lose my voice when I look at you, can't make a noise though I'm trying to

Am

F

Tell you all the right words, waiting on the right words

C

G

Just another lovesick afternoon, Black Butterflies and Déjà Vu

Am

F

Hoping for the right words, waiting for the right words