Verso: G D A Bm

Got caught, running up a tab, couldn't drive home so I had to share a cab
Introduced herself, by her last name, the kinda girl you steal from the football team
Brought up, a silver spoon mess, always trying to tear off her Catholic dress,
Told me, she's over this place, needs to get the Mid-west wind in her face

Pre-refrao:

Bm G

And the alcohol, made it's way down,

Bm G A

she was the last thing that I saw last night before I hit the ground

Refrao: G D A Bm A

Oh God I did the wrong thing, to the Right girl,
My mind was only in it for a minute
Had a bad fling, with a good girl, I was stupid and dumb, not giving a -
The blank stare, at the window, if I could just sober up, if I could just admit
I did the wrong thing, to the Right girl, it was your world baby and I just lived in it

Verso: G D A B

I've never been the best with my mouth, try to say smart but the dumb comes out
Maybe I'm shy, I drive an old car, maybe I'm amazed that I got this far

Pre-refrao:

Bm G

When I got my stand by's waiting on the line,

Bm G A

but the hardest part is knowing That it won't be her this time

Refrão: G D A Bm A

Oh God I did the wrong thing, to the Right girl,
My mind was only in it for a minute
Had a bad fling, with a good girl, I was stupid and dumb, not giving a â€”-
The blank stare, at the window, if I could just sober up, if I could just admit
I did the wrong thing, to the Right girl, it was your world baby and I just
lived in it

G D A Bm A

Please, Please, baby come back (x4)

Ponte

G

D

She came back, thought she had it all planned out

A

Bm

Went to marry some guy she had talked about

G D A Bm

A tear in her dress, and a tear in her eye, and just like that her whole life flashed by

Bm

G

She said you wonâ€™t remember what you said last night,

B

G

A

If you ever needed someone To pick up the pieces in your life
