

Undressing The Words
The Maine

*song learned by ear.

The Whole song is C G Am F, you just need to find out the strumming pattern.

Intro: C G Am F

Oh this suggestion may be a bit suggestive But i ve had it on my mind all night and you re attentive but youre dying for attention Girl it takes two just to feel alright
It isn t real if its just one night, i m trying real hard oh just be real

The love on my lips sweetheart im sorry but youre not the first
With lust in my eyes i ll be undressing
you with every word

Interlude: (play C G Am F)

I think i m comin onto something quick my words are flyin right over your head oh there s a lot more to it than this i m not just trying to get in your bed it isn t real if its jst one night,
i m trying real hard oh just be real

but youre not the first
you with every word

So tell me now, you ve gotta let me know cmon cmon you ve gotta let me know i m about to explode

The love on my lips sweetheart im sorry
but youre not the first
you with every word
