

Well All Be The Maine

Verse 1

A D
Surrounded by familiar faces,
A
the people that you love to see
D
Where everybody knows your name,
A
and they re smiling
D
We may not be gettin younger,
A
our days might be slippin away
D
Yeah we re still so fucking young,
Bm
so we ll party like it s our last day

Pre-Chorus

Bm
And for the first time,
A
I feel less alone
D
And for the first time,
Bm
I can call this home

Chorus

A Bm D
It s our last time to say goodnight
E A
Don t say goodbye, cause in the morning we ll
A Bm D
we ll see you around, and we ll sing it again,
E
same time tomorrow, yeah we ll all join in

Verse 2 (same as Verse 1)

I m ashamed of feeling down now
Cause we re the people we ve been waiting on
All we needed was some good friends
And a song to sing a long
With voices yelling in the front room
No one could tell us keep it down
So we all just kept it loud,
and tried to wake the entire town

Pre-Chorus

Chorus x2

Musical Break

A

A Dadd9 A Dadd9 Bm Dadd9 A Dadd9

A

Dadd9

Oh, these days are numbered but we can't forget last summer

A

Dadd9

When we sang and threw our arms into the air

Bm

Go on and sing it out

Dadd9

Our days are numbered, we know we're not getting younger

A

Dadd9

But it's nights like these that make you not really care

A

Dadd9

We all have been degraded

A

Dadd9

We all have been the greatest

Bm

Dadd9

We all have been degraded

A

Dadd9

We all will be the greatest