C I was born on a river that flows to the sea And all that I know, well, she taught it to me She is a dangerous beauty, she s fickle and cold Am But if you gave her respect, she might let you grow old. She s a Syren that calls to us when we are on shore You can smell her and taste her and hear the wawe s roar She the giver and the maker and the taker of life She s the tears of the mothers and daughters and wives. So Lightkeeper make sure your flame s burning bright And keep us weel off of those rocks in theese parts Guide us back home through the dark of the night Oh lightkeeper shine like the moon and the stars Shine like the moon and the stars. Oh damn the bad weather we ll go out today Shoulder to shoulder we ll pull our day s pay Work with the wind and we ll sail with the tide And haul the fish up from wherever they hide.

We belong to the ocean for better or worse
