#24 in USA in 1966.

*** (CAPO 1st FRET) ***

INTRO:

E A
And the rain beats on my roof..
E A
and it does not ask for proof.

#1.

E D
It s not that lovers are unkind.
E D
She always said there d come a time,
G Bm B
When one would leave, and one stay behind.

#2.

E D
We both knew people sometimes change.
E D
And lovers sometimes rearrange.
G Bm E
And nothing s quite as sure as change,
A
and the rain beats on my roof.

CHORUS:

A Dm G C G
Look through my window..yeah..to the street below.
Am E
See the people hurryin by..
C#m Am
With someone to meet, someplace to go...o,
E B
and I know I should let go.

#3.

G F
She always said, I m not like you.
G F
When love is dead for me, it s through.
A# Dm D E
And I will find and love someone new.

CHORUS:

#4.

G F
I must admit she knew her mind.
G F
And it will not take her long to find,
A# Dm D E
another place where the sun will shine.

ADD:

E A
And the rain beats on my roof.
E A
If I still require proof.
E A E
Well, the rain beats on my roof..she s gone
A E
if I still require proof..she s gone..
A
Well, the rain beats on my roof...

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.
