

Solitary Confinement

The Members

SOLITARY CONFINEMENT (The Members)

INTRO: Asus4 A E x4

A

You are living in the suburbs,
And you have problems with your parents,
So you move on up to london town,
Where you think verythings happening, going down.

CHORUS:

F# A

Living in a bedsit,
Travelling on a tube train,

D C# B

Working all day long.

D C# B

And you know no one,
So you don t go out,
And you eat out of tins,

E (stop)

And you watch television. Solitary confinement.

ALL IN: A (with lead)

A

I have got a good job,
And i am working in the city,
Get the tube train at 8 o clock and 5,
And a really don t know if i m dead or alive.

REPEAT CHORUS:

SPOKEN VERSE

A

Well I was living in Camberly, and, you know, I thought I d move up to London,
Life would be very exiting for me, I d go out at night and meet girls and things,
but nothing ever happened round my neck of the woods,
except for this rather nice girl across the way from me,
I got it sussed, she got a 40 inch bust, and she s just...just like!

REPEAT CHORUS:

A

D

Solitary confinement. You re so lonely,
Solitary confinement. You re so lonely,

A

Solitary confinement. We re The SKONES going to tell you what it s like to be...

A On your own By yourself x2 B on your own By yourself x2
By yourself, By yourself x2 By yourself By yourself x2
B (stop) D (stop) A (stop)
Buy yourself this record

LONG DRUM ROLL

ALL IN: • with Lead

A (not sure the other two chords here for the stabs)
And it s lonely for you,
And it s lonely for me,
A
And it s lonely for all of us, can t you see?

REPEAT CHORUS:

JUST DRUMS & VOCALS
Solitary confinementâ€|youâ€™re so lonely
Repeat to end