Tuning:

Great song here by a great band. I saw them play this live, and I know they used a capo on some songs, but I can t remember if they did or not on this. Anyways, you could probably put one on the third fret make it a little easier. Tab is at the bottom.

Chords:

A# 6-8-8-7-6-6 (w/ capo, G)
D# x-6-8-8-6-6 (w/ capo, C)
Cm x-3-5-5-4-3 (w/ capo, Am)
Gm 3-5-5-3-3-3 (w/ capo, Em)

INTRO: A#

VERSE: (w/ verse lead)

A#
I was born on a light-skinned road,
I was born with an engineers gold,
Gm A#
I did better than most.

A#
Now I live on a dark-skinned road,
The collectors call they try to take my gold,
Gm A#
Im happier than most.

BRIDGE: (w/lead)

F
The streets are never clean
D#
My friends they help preserve my innocence.

A# Gm

VERSE:

A#

We shared our cigarettes,
At the window we placed our bets,

Gm

A#

They wouldnt call our names, Tickets hide our shame.

A#

So we laughed through glossy eyes,
Surely the gods would recognize,

Gm

A#

Our good intentions, we showed them, The sweat covered our skin.

BRIDGE: (w/lead)

F

We aged a decade in an hour,

D#

We gave away our innocence.

A#

INTERLUDE:

(n.C)

So let these simple songs get caught in our heads,

Gm

Brace the frames of our worthless beds.

A#

All my life never gave a fuck,

Gm

D#

Someone please wake me up.
