Verse(s) A baby s born in 1987
 Into a family of love and care
 His Mummy treats him like a gift from heaven
 His Daddy shows him how to style his hair

A few years later it s a cold December
And Daddy needs to buy some milk and juice
Dad, I want a twix please, if you remember
The final words wasted, if he only knew that

Dad was running off with the cleaner
She wasn t even fit, you should ve seen her
If she had big tits and no moustache at worst
Dad would ve never ran away cuz I d of banged her first

Dad s was running off with a refugee
Before his son had even learnt his ABC
Before his son had even learnt to climb a tree
And incase you hadn t noticed Dad that baby was me

Chorus F6 F C
 Daddy, I ll never see you, Daddy, you ll never see me too
 Daddy, you missed my birthday, and I miss you every Fathers Day
 F6 F Em/G E7/G#
 Daddy, I want to see you, Daddy, do you want to see me too?
 Am G#aug C/G F#m7b5
 Daddy, are you okay?, so I guess this is Happy Fathers Day

Verse(s) I wonder if you even got my twix
 You probably gave it to your Spanish bitch and them kids
 Sorry if you think I m being racist
 But I don t want my twix in their Spanish faces

Dad? Just wondering if you ve ever felt someone else

Rip your heart out put it in the fire just to watch it melt
Cause that s how I feel, I hope you come back
So I don t suffer from another snack attack

Cause Dad, when it feels like your heart s stopped beating
Some people turn to comfort eating
I can laugh now, now that I m fine but I was Cramming pork pies into my mouth five at a time

Cheese strings and chicken wings, KFC and Burger Kings
Onion Rings, I was eating all them things
I had to go on Jerry Springer
Cuz I was trying to eat my sausage fingers

Chorus
