I m gonna love that girl to the day that i die

It s gettin to the point

I must permit myself to speak

And ask all these player haters to tell of what misjustice i have bestowed on them this week but if they cared about my feelings which they obviously dont they would not waste their time or their breath im so afraid of lonliness, apathy and baldiness but im not afraid, im not afraid, im not afraid of...

Death comes crawling all the while but im lost in my babys smile and im gonna love that girl till the day i die
