A Sea Of Roses
The Milk Carton Kids

[Intro]
F C G C G

[Verse 1]

```
C                                                    Dm                G
I lose sleep at night like a young man who s in the fight of his young life
F                 Dm               G                         C      G
I have never known the way the wind would blow if everything were fine
C                                                    Dm                G
I m scared that when I die I ll be alone with no one sitting by my side
F                        Dm     G     C        G
No, I do not think that I could be alone when I die
```

[Chorus 1]
```
        F           C
Lay me down in the ground
        F           C
Put me back into the earth
       F          C
Among all of my friends
         F          C
Under a blanket of roses
    F      Dm    F    G
A sea of flowers overhead
```

[Verse 2]
```
C                                                      Dm           G
A field outside of Nashville pitches color to the dreariness of day
F                                     Dm           G              C       G
So the air hangs soft and tender, blowin   round my thoughts whichever way
C                                                      Dm            G
Where hills, they rise for miles and miles, I recognize the cryin  in the wind
F                     Dm     G                       C       G
I hear people come from everywhere to say goodbye sweet-like to their kin
```

[Chorus 1]
```
       F           C
Lay me down in the ground
       F           C
Put me back into the earth
      F          C
Among all of my friends
         F          C
```

```
Under a blanket of roses
    F      Dm     F     G
A sea of flowers overhead

[Chorus 2]
          F               C
That is right, I don t believe
    F              C
Anymore than skies above
          F                  C
It s just me and those I ve loved
        F           C
Under a blanket of roses
    F      Dm     F     G
A sea of flowers overhead
        C      F    G    C
When I die
```
