

Old World
The Modern Lovers

Hi,
This one even has the solo tabbed out.

Here is another tab/chord chart for a song from the I would be extremely interested in hearing from anybody with corrections, comments, etc.

Thanks,

are A & G).

Opening riff goes like this:
(please listen to the record for the rhythm, feel, and ability to keep your place in the old world, etc., but this is the basic idea)

A

e---0-0-0-3-0-3-3-0-3-3-0-----
B---2-2-2---2-----3-3-3-----
G---2-2-2---2----- REPEAT FOUR TIMES
D---2-2-2---2-----
A---0-0-0---0-----
E---x-x-x---x-----

```

After the opening riff, while singing the song, this little riff can be played at the end of each phrase in which the chord is an A:

B---2-----3-----
G---2-----
D---2-----
A---0-----
E---x-----

Well the old world may be dead . . .

(I think this little end riff is probably played by the organ, as it is heard on the record, but this seems to work for solo guitar.)

The solo riff from the middle of the song goes soemthing like this:

B---2---2-----2-----
G-----2-----0--2----- D-----
A-----
E-----
```

```
e-----0-----0-0-0---3-2-----0-----
B---2---2-----2-----2-----
G-----
D-----
A-----
E-----
```

B---2---2-----2-----
G-----2-----0--2----- D-----
A-----
E-----
```

```
e-----0-----0-0-0---3-2-----0-----
B---2---2-----2-----2-----
G-----
D-----
A-----
E-----
```

(please listen to the record for the exact rhythm here)

```
B--2---2---2---2---2-0-----
G-----2-----
D-----
A-----
E-----
```

```
e---0---0---0---0---3-2-----0---
B--2---2---2---2-----2-----
G-----
D-----
A-----
E-----
```

Keep my place in the arcane

G A

Cause I still have parents and I still love the old world

Alright

I say old world

I say old world

A G A

I say

Well I see a 50 s apartment house

Bleak in the morning sun

But I still love the 50 s

And I still love the old world

I wanna keep my place in the old world

Keep my place in the arcane

Cause I still have parents and I still love the old world

Alright

SOLO (see the solo riff tabbed above, insert it here)

I see the 50 s apartment house

It s bleak in the 1970 s sun

But I still love the 50 s

And I still love the old world

I wanna keep my place in this old world

Keep my place in the arcane knowledge

And I still love the 50 s and I still love the old world

Alright now we say bye bye old world

Gotta help the new world

Oh bye bye

I say bye bye bye old world
