NINE TIMES BLUE
by Michael Nesmith

I got this off of a tape the my friend made me. It s different from the Headquarters CD track, and this is what I ve figured out. I m not sure if the B7-G in the chorus is right. If anyone has any questions, please email me.

Intro: G-D-G-D-Em-C-D-D-G

Vs 1:

G D
There s a certain something in the way
 G D Em
You looked at me and said you d stay
 C D G
That let me know that I was out of line
 G D
But I didn t know what else to do
 G D Em
And like a fool I tested you
 C D G
By demanding things of you which weren t mine.

Chorus:

C D G D Em
And now I feel like such a fool
 C D G

For making you crawl back to me

B7

But you did it with such love

Em

That you re standing far above

Am

Me and all I did to you

D7

I m sorry now, what can I do?

Vs 2:

G D

I know that never in the world

G D Em

Could I have found me such a girl

C D G

Who s there to pick me up before I fall

G D

And if in the end we should go

G D Em

Both our separate ways

C D G

I know the lesson I ve learned here is worth it all.

Chorus:

C D G D Em

And now I feel like such a fool

C D G

For making you crawl back to me

B7

But you did it with such love

Em

That you re standing far above

Am

Me and all I did to you

D7

I m sorry now, what can I do?

Vs 2:

G D

I know that never in the world

G D Em

Could I have found me such a girl

C D G

Who s there to pick me up before I fall

G D

And if in the end we should go

G D Em

Both our separate ways

C

D

G

I know the lesson I've learned here is worth it all.
