

Sweet Young Thing
The Monkees

Sweet Young Thing:The Monkees.
Album - The Monkees - #1 USA in 1966
and UK in 1967.

INTRO: A

#1.

A

I know that something very strange is happening to my brain.

A

I m either feeling very good or else I am insane.

G

A

The seeds of doubt you planted have started to grow wild.

G

D

A

But I feel that I must yield before the wisdom of a child.

CHORUS:

A

And it s love you bring..no, that I can t deny.

G

A

With your wings, I can learn to fly..sweet young thing.

#2.

A

People try to talk to me, their words are ugly sounds.

A

But I resist all their attempts to try and bring me down.

G

A

Turned on to the sunset like I ve never done before.

G

D

A

I listen for your footsteps and your knock upon the door.

CHORUS:

A

And it s love you bring..no, that I can t deny.

G

A

With your wings, I can learn to fly..sweet young thing.

(INTERLUDE:) A G A

OUTRO:

A

And it s love you bring, with dreams of bluer skies.

G

All these things, when I see it in your eyes..

A

sweet young thing..

A E A
sweet..young..thing..ahhh..

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.