You Just May Be the One

By Michael Nesmith

A

All men must have someone, have someone

D

Who would never take advantage

A

Of a love bright as the sun.

E

D

Someone to understand them,

D

A

And you just may be the one.

A

All men must have someone, have someone

D

Who would never take for granted

A

All the pleasures and the fun.

E

D

Someone to stand beside them,

D

A

And you just may be the one.

A

D

I saw when you walked by

A

The lovelight in your eye

G

E

And I knew I must try

A

D

To win you more than as a friend,

A

I m starting near the end,

G

E

And here I go again.

A

All men must have someone, have someone

D

Who would never take advantage

A

Of a love bright as the sun.

E

D

Someone to understand them,

D

A

And you just may be the one.

E

D

Someone to understand them,

D

A

And you just may be the one.
