

You Just May Be The One
The Monkees

You Just May Be the One

By Michael Nesmith

A
All men must have someone, have someone
D
Who would never take advantage
A
Of a love bright as the sun.
E D
Someone to understand them,
D A
And you just may be the one.

A
All men must have someone, have someone
D
Who would never take for granted
A
All the pleasures and the fun.
E D
Someone to stand beside them,
D A
And you just may be the one.

A D
I saw when you walked by
A
The lovelight in your eye
G E
And I knew I must try
A D
To win you more than as a friend,
A
I m starting near the end,
G E
And here I go again.

A
All men must have someone, have someone
D
Who would never take advantage
A
Of a love bright as the sun.
E D
Someone to understand them,

D

A

And you just may be the one.

E

D

Someone to understand them,

D

A

And you just may be the one.