

You Told Me
The Monkees

A

You told me you d always stay, you told me,

You told me you d never stray, you told me,

D

All these things you said you said sincerely,

A

Still, I am leaving you in spite of what you told me.

I ve heard things that did not match what you told me,

And of your love that would not last as you told me,

D

Forewarned is forearmed, it hurts, I m leaving,

A

I may be wrong I can t love what I m just hearing.

D

E

Times have made me shy

A

Of all the things you re saying,

D

E

Times have made me shy

A

F

E

Of girls and all the games that they are playing.

A

Someday, I may see the truth of what you told me,

I may find I left too soon and that you told me,

D

Only things that you were honestly feeling,

A

But, I must have more to love than what you told me,

(I must have more to love than what you told me)

Yes, I must have more to love than what you told me,

(I must have more to love than what you told me)

Yes, I must have more to love than what you told me.