Intro:

D A G D A G D A

Verse 1

D A
Oh I once knew a girl from virginia

E F#m
She had eyes like the first day of may

D A
And she talked like she never remembered

G D A
What to say, hey hey

G D A
What to say, hey hey

D A
In the morning she left me her number

E F#m
Then she fled like a bird in the rain

D A
So I sat on the carpet and wondered

G D A
What to say, hey hey

G D A
What to say, hey hey

Chorus

F#m E
We crept in the moonlight, she snuck by the door

D                      A              E
Oh, virginia no more, no more

F#m                                      E
And awkward I stumbled, I ve been there before

D                      E
Oh virginia, no more

Verse 2

D    A
So I changed out the taste, and I made my escape

E                                      F#m
Out the door onto our separate ways

D                                      A
And I ll see you around if I do figure out

G      D      A
What to say, hey hey

G      D      A
What to say, hey hey

Chorus

F#m                                      E
We crept in the moonlight, she snuck by the door

D                      A              E
Oh, virginia no more, no more

F#m                                      E
And awkward I stumbled, I ve been there before

Oh virginia, no more
