The Mountain Goats

B A

i got my eye on the scar

E B

it runs clear from your temple to your jawline

B A

you ll tell me about all your thoughts right this minute

E B

then I will tell you mine.

B F#

cause i got the wind in my hair

E B

and I m far away from where i used to be

B F#

but i got all my attention fixed on you

and you re flashing that smile at me.

with the midwestern sky burning above us we lean up against the car i want to tell you what the sky has done to me i want you to tell me who we are cause i see you raising the water to your lips it s the blazing dead center of july and i got all my hopes hung on one gorgeous promise and you got the sunlight dancing on your eyes and i got the wind in my hair

and i m far away from where i used to be

but i got all my attention fixed on you and you re just where you said you d be just where you said you d be
