Alpha Desperation March
by The Mountain Goats

G
I m coming in
G
Try to stop me
G
Push furniture in front of the door
G
It only gives me something to push against
D
In the full heat of the summer s day
C G
You re telling me to go away
D
But you owe me eight thousand dollars
G
And I could use it

G
I m only getting stronger
G
You may have noticed
G
But a head full of memories propels me ever forward
D
And in the living room I don t see where you are
C G
But the back door s open so you can t have gone far
D
And eight thousand dollars is a whole lotta money
G
And I could use it

G
Could be that it s my imagination
G
But I think I hear you now

G

So come out come out wherever you are

G

Ollie ollie ollie ollie ollie oxen-freeeeee

D

See I m perfectly aware of where our love stands

C

G

But the plain fact is that you owe me eight grand

If it helps to jog your memory

D

I lent it to you one Tuesday when we were drinking

G

Ha, Ha-Ha-Ha-Ha, A-ha
