The Mountain Goats

E C G D x2

E C G D

Two tall glasses of sweet iced tea, underneath the sweet gum tree \mathbf{r}

And the love we once nurtured, you and me

T T

Disintegrating violently

Am

Stick your tongue out

D

Catch the pieces as they drift down the air

Am

I am too slow to catch them all

D F#

Not too far gone to care

E C G D x2

E (

Two slow summer hours spent picking at the bones

G D

Figuring the interest on delinquent loans

E (

Speaking in sad and mournful tones

G D

Trying to squeeze tears out of mute stones

Am

Wet your finger, place it toward the wind

ע

Feel disaster in the air

Am

We are far too slow to outrun it now

D F#

Not too far gone to care

E C G D x4
