Color In You Cheeks The Mountain Goats

Abm A B Dbm

She came in on the redeye to dallas-fort worth. All the way from sunny taipei.

Abm A B

Abm A B

Skin the color of a walnut shell, And a baseball cap holding down her black hair. And she came here after midnight.

Abm Α

В

E

The hot weather made her feel right at home. Come on we haven t slept for weeks. Drink some of this. it ll put color in your cheeks.

Abm Dbm A B

He drove from in from mexicali, no worse for wear.

Abm A

Money to burn, time to kill. but

Abm A в

five minutes looking in his eyes and we all

E Abm

knew he was broken pretty bad, so we gave him what we had. We cleared a space for him to sleep in, and we let the silence that s our trademark make its presence felt. Come on

В

E

EA

we haven t slept for weeks. Drink some of

E E A this. it ll put color in your cheeks. Bridge: Dbm Abm A B E (One octave Up) B Dbm Abm A В They came in by the dozens, walking or crawling. Abm E Α Some were bright-eyed. Some were dead on their feet. E Abm Α And they came in from zimbabwe, Or from soviet, Abm georgia. East saint louis, or from paris, or they lived across the street. But they came, and when they d finally made it here, It was the E least that we could do to make our welcome clear. Come on E we haven t slept for weeks. Drink some of E Α this. it ll put color in your cheeks.