

Golden Boy
The Mountain Goats

D6: xx0202

[Spoken]

Hello there Paul
I had a take and I was ready to send it and I thought
You know, it can be done better
So here it is then
Now I m wearing my boots which always guarantees a good showing

[Intro]

D6 D Em Em7 G A7 D (x2)

[Verse]

D Em7
you must try to lead a good life
G A7
you must do unto others
D
as you would have them do

so that when you die
Em7
you ll find golden boy peanuts
G A7 D
waiting in the afterlife for you

[Chorus]

there are no pan-Asian supermarkets
Em7
down in hell
G A7 D
so you can t buy golden boy peanuts

there are no pan-Asian supermarkets
Em7
down in hell
G A7 D
so you can t buy golden boy peanuts

[Interlude]

D6 D Em Em7 G A7 D

[Verse]

D Em7
if thine enemy oppresseth you
G A7 D
you must let him oppress you some more

Em7

so that when you go shopping in paradise

G A7

D

you ll find those magnificent peanuts from Singapore

G

with the drawing of the

D

young Chinese farmer

Em7

eastern sun behind him

D

smiling at you from the shelves

Em7

if we want to spend eternity in happiness

G

A7

D

we are going to have to watch ourselves

Em7

you must give to the March of Dimes

G

A7

you must be on guard against wickedness

D

at all times and you will find that your efforts

Em7

have brought you great joy when your

G

A7

D

spirit is munching on that golden boy

[Chorus]

Em7

there are no pan-Asian supermarkets down in hell

G

A7

D

so you can t buy golden boy peanuts there

Em7

but the streets of heaven are lined with shells

G

A7

D

and there s billboards of the golden boy everywhere

Em7

there are no pan-Asian supermarkets down in hell

G

A7

D

so you can t buy golden boy peanuts

Em7

there are no pan-Asian supermarkets down in hell

G

D

so you can t buy golden boy peanuts... GO!
