You are sleeping off your demons

When I come home

Fine white foam

I am young and I am good

A D
It s a hot Southern California day

A E
If I wake you up

A D
There will be hell to pay

A
And alone in my room

D A
I am the last of a lost civilization

D A
And I vanish into the dark

D A

And rise above my station

D A

Rise above my station

But I do wake you up and when I do

I m in my room with my headphones on

Deep in a dream chamber

Hoping you don t break my stereo

And so I think about that

Held under these smothering waves

By your strong and thick veined hand

But one of these days

E A

I m gonna wriggle off on dry land
