

Raja Vocative
The Mountain Goats

The song is tuned a half step down, but it doesn't do much to the mood of the piece if you just play it in standard.

Intro chords:

C C/B Am7 G

C G
a bird you would've liked brought the sky down
C G
but it was useless to see it without you around
C G
and in the unstoppable camera of my mind's eye
C D
i saw you and some foreign guy

C G
and i could hear your voice ringing
C G
and i could hear you singing
C D G Em
from all the way across the country in Palm Springs
C D C
i can hear you now

C C/B Am7 G

C G
your laughter tore through the New Jersey night
C G
and i can't stand it, but i'm alright
C G
stood out on the balcony and i took a look around
C G
and a bird you would've loved the sight of brought the sky down

C G
and i could hear your voice ringing
C G
and i could hear you singing
C D G Em
from all the way across the country in Palm Springs
C D C
i can hear you now
