

Chinatown
The Move

Chinatown

Words and music by Roy Wood

Transcribed by Tom De Val (tde_val@hotmail.com)

VERSES:

C Cmaj7 Em
Bury a jar of Shou Hsing when the girl is born.

C Cmaj7 A7
Surely you know the wine will age till she's fully grown.

Em C C/B A7
Don't fly into the night, sooooooooon enough the world will end

Em
while the lantern is bright.

CHORUS:

G E Am A7
I could find a good time girl in Chinatown, Chinatown.

D
Dancing in my shoes.

G E Am
See the eastern ladies walk in Chinatown,

Cmaj7 Fmaj7 G6
Chinatown, chain me down, Chinatown.

MIDDLE:

| Em / / / | Em / / / | Adim / / / | Adim / / / |
| Em / / / | Em / / / | Adim / / / | F / / / | F / / / | Em / / / | Em / / / |

OUTRO:

| D / / / | G / / / | Cmaj7

VERSE 2

Maybe I'll drink your jasmine tea then I'll hurry home.
Surely you know the likes of me should be left alone.
Why they like a me for, soon enough the world will end
If I answer the door.

VERSE 3

Look at the tall pagoda through, through your window pane.
watching you fly your dragon kite on a cocoa day.

You've discovered the white orchids in my humble moon
while the lantern is bright.

STRUCTURE:

VERSE 1

CHORUS

VERSE 2

CHORUS

MIDDLE

VERSE 3

CHORUS

OUTRO