I DON T NEED YOU NOW - mr t experience
-----

VERSE 1 : this is a really easy song and if you listen to it a few times you should understand the
the tab really well.

xxxxxxxxx      G            C            G
there was a time when I thought I would die D            C            G
every time I thought of you I d cry
                Am            C
and think myself into a state
                Am            D
and drink myself to sleep to late G            C            G
but what was pulling us and me apart
                D            C            G
was only breaking in my broken heart
                Am                          C
now its controlled again on hold again
                Am                          D
and more broken in than its ever been

CHORUS :

          G    C    D
so I don t need you now
                G            C            D
I can t believe how I ever wondered how
                G            C            D            C
I d ever make it without you thinking about you
          G            D            G    C    G
but I don t need you now

VERSE 2 : same chords

there was a time when I thought I should try to make myself hate you to get by it wasn't hard to do to think of you and all the things you put me through but now I've had some time to contemplate and I've discovered other things to hate there's still bitterness I can't resist but you're moving to the bottom of a pretty long list

CHORUS 2 : same chords

so I don't hate you now
I don't even want to checkmate you now
I still don't like how much you don't want me to touch you but I don't hate you now

BRIDGE :

C G                  D                  G
and if I'm crying well what did you expect
                  C G                  Am
I've been trying but I still don't know how C                  D
not to be a wreck

VERSE 3 : play through the verse chords once then...

though I'm still aware you're still out there still busy breaking someone's heart somewhere and though to you it's nothing new for once I've got no explaining to do

CHORUS 3 :

cause I don't know you now and I don't have anything to show you now except for all of these apologies that I don't owe you now

OUTRO :

G          C          G          D
I don't need you I don't need you (x2)
                  G          C          D                  C
I think it's weird how much you don't want me to touch you
          G          D          G C G

when I first heard this song I thought that it was kind of stupid, but after a while it really grows on you. It works with power chords, but it sounds like shit (same with all open chords). My suggestion is to use E - form bar chord on fret 3 for the G; open for Am; and A - form bar chords for C and D . have fun
