Verse 1:

A D
I met you on a stormy weekend
A D
You never meant to draw the line
A Bm D
I saw you once you didn't smile
E
Thought you needed my advice
F#m D
But didn't know it at the time

Verse 2:

A D
I called you in the dead of winter
A D
You didn't even hold the line
A Bm D
I've seen it all the great decline
E
One more troubled state of mine
F#m D
What's so wrong? Why can't you even try?

Chorus 1:

A
Hear me out now

D
a thousand miles around
F#m
That the sound of strangers
E
breaking new ground

A
It s the breakdown

D
of a lifetime

Bm E
Here we go now falling
of the straight line

A Bm D
Lost in city lights

A Bm D
Lost in city lights

Verse 3:

A
I know all about
D
your little secrets

A
I ve felt the chills
D
and your regrets

A Bm
I heard them all

D
yeah through the wall

E
While you never had a clue

F#m D
And if you knew what would you do?

Chorus 2:

A
Hear me out now

D
a thousand miles around

F#m
That the sound of strangers
E
breaking new ground

A
It s the breakdown

D
of a lifetime

Bm E
Here we go now falling

of the straight line

D

Falling back in the days

F#m

you were doing all right

E

If you re set in your ways

A

then you fade out of sight

D

When at first it felt wrong

F#m

it soon became right

E

Now the cracks on the wall

D

were a map of your life

E

The addiction is back and

A

it s heavy this time

Now you re talking to the

F#m E

D

voices through the wall

E

Will you make it this time?
