Tuning: 1/2 step down

Chords:

Intro: C-Am-C-Am

C Am
Love, I won't break your heart;
G Am (G)
It's a long way down from here.
C Am
Every time you fall and break apart,
G Am (G)
I will pick you up again.

C G
With your head up high, would you try,
Am Em F
try to place your feet back on the ground.
G Am G
I've found that it's easier to hide
C G
in the cold alone;
Am Em F G
an arrival since the day you fell apart.
Am G
Oh but honey I'm alive.

Repeat C-G-Am-Em-F-G-Am-G

C Am
Love, I won't break your heart,
G Am (G)
'cause I've seen this all before.
C Am
You're a fire that grows from just a spark,
G Am (G)
and then walks right out the door.

With your head up high, would you try,
try to place your feet back on the ground.
Iâ€™ve found that itâ€™s easier to hide
in the cold alone;
an arrival since the day you fell apart.
Oh but honey I m alive.

Crying on the phone,
when you said you were alone.
I am gonna stay,
though your friends have gone away.
All the secrets that we have only keep the worlds alive.
But you ve got something left to give,
if you d only learn to live.

With your head up high, would you try,
cause youâ€™re the only one to pull me through.
Its true,
and it seems a waste of time
to grow old alone.
Weâ€™ve been dying since the day we fell apart.
Oh but honey I m still alive. Iâ€™m still aliveâ€|

Repeat 2x C-G-Am-Em-F-G-Am-G

Ends on C

If you don't want to tune your guitar down, you can use a capo on the 2nd fret and replace C with A, Am with F#m, G with E, F with D, and Em with C#m, and that sounds okay too.
